

New Haven Wins Utah's Best of State Award

New Haven is happy to announce winning Utah's Best of State Award in the category of Youth Treatment Center. New Haven was honored with other winners at a black-tie dinner on May 31, 2008. Nominees for the Best of State Award were judged in three areas: service to the community, innovation, and overall excellence. Dana Layton, Best of State's CEO, wrote, "Your nomination was judged on its merits by an independent panel of judges who were recommended by Chambers of Commerce, various state associations, community and business leaders, and mayors' offices. Thank you for your high achievement and your contributions to our quality of life here in Utah."

Dustin Tibbitts, LMFT, Executive Director, John Stewart, LCSW, Clinical Director, Laurie Laird, M.Ed., Education Director, Greg Burnham, LMFT, Assistant Clinical Director, Larissa Taylor, History Teacher, and Irene Kotter, Parks House Lead Supervisor attended the event in Salt Lake City. Irene and Laurie accepted the Award on behalf of the employees of New Haven.
