

JTSP

Journal of Therapeutic Schools & Programs

A Publication of the National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs

EDITOR

Dr. Michael Gass, Ph.D., LMFT
Professor
School of Health & Human Services
University of New Hampshire
Durham, NH

ASSOCIATE EDITOR

Dr. Keith Russell, Ph.D.
Associate Professor
Western Washington University
Bellingham, Washington

EDITORIAL ASSISTANTS

Jamie Burke, University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH
Ryan Zelov, University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH

EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD

Dr. Jared Balmer, Ph.D

Executive Director
Island View Center for Adolescents
Syracuse, Utah

Dr. Michael Berrett, Ph. D.

Executive Director
Center for Change
Orem, Utah

Dr. Michael Berrett, Ph.D.

Executive Director
Center for Change
Orem, Utah

Dr. Robert Cooley, Ph. D.

Executive Director
Catherine Freer Wilderness Therapy
Expeditions Salem, Oregon

Dr. Lee. Gillis, Ph.D.

Chair & Professor
Department of Psychology
Georgia College & State University
Milledgeville, Georgia

Dr. John McKinnon, M. D.

Clinical Director
Montana Academy
Marion, Montana

Dr. John Santa, Ph. D.

Clinical Director
Montana Academy
Marion, Montana

Michael Young

Extension Educator
4-H Youth Development
Brentwood, NH

JTSP PRODUCTION STAFF

Director of Publications

Clifford M. Brownstein
Executive Director, NATSAP
Bethesda, Maryland

Senior Editorial Specialist

Maria Maslennikov
Administrative Assistant, NATSAP
Bethesda, Maryland

JOURNAL OF THERAPEUTIC SCHOOLS AND PROGRAMS (JTSP) is published two times a year by the National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs to provide a forum for the exchange of information and opinion on theory, research, and practice in providing comprehensive care for adolescents, young adults, and for families receiving services from member programs. All rights reserved.

PERMISSION TO QUOTE, REPRINT, PHOTOCOPY It is the policy of NATSAP and the Editorial Board of JTSP that abstracts published with journal articles are indicative of, and not a substitute for, the work as a whole; therefore, access services are allowed free use of these abstracts without securing the permission of the JTSP. Enquiries about policy and procedures relating to permission to reproduce material published in the journal should be directed to: Dr. Michael Gass, Editor, JTSP, NH Hall, 124 Main Street, University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH 03824, (603) 862-2024, mgass@unh.edu

MANUSCRIPTS The Journal of Therapeutic Schools and Programs (JTSP) publishes articles that assist readers in providing comprehensive care for adolescents, young adults, and families receiving services from member programs. The editors welcome manuscripts that are the original work of the author(s) and follow the style of APA as presented in the fifth edition of Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Manuscripts and related correspondence should be sent to Dr. Michael Gass, Editor, JTSP, NH Hall, 124 Main Street, University of New Hampshire, Durham, NH 03824, mgass@unh.edu. Send six copies of the submission.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF THERAPEUTIC SCHOOLS AND PROGRAMS
The National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs is a non-profit member organization of schools and programs from around the country and was formed to serve as a national resource for its members. Through a dynamic process, the National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs develops and advocates ethical and practice standards designed to protect consumers while improving the effectiveness of programming within member programs.

MEMBERSHIP Schools and Programs interested in membership the National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs are referred to their website, www.natsap.org or the Executive Director at (301) 986-8770.

National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs

Headquarters Office: 5272 River Road, Ste 600
Bethesda, MD 20816

Telephone: (301) 986-8770 • Fax: (301) 986-8772
info@natsap.org • www.natsap.org

NATSAP
BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2010

Craig LaMont
President
Telos Residential Treatment

James Meyer
Treasurer
Oakley School

Glen Zaugg
Heritage Schools

Mike Merchant
ANASAZI Foundation

Sami Butler
Intermountain

Dane Kane
RedCliff Ascent

Rick Johnson
Summit Preparatory School

Gil Hallows
Aspen Achievement Academy

Sid Parham
Family Foundation School

Brad Reedy
Second Nature

Craig Rodabough
CERTS

Angie Senic
Eckerd Division of Private Academies

John Stewart
New Haven

Sharon Laney
Ex-Officio
Three Springs, Inc.

Anne Thompson
Ex-Officio
Educational Consultant

AUTHORS - JTSP Volume IV, Issue I

Ellen Behrens, Ph.D., a principal investigator for the study presented in Longitudinal Family And Academic Outcomes in Residential Programs, a Utah licensed psychologist. She received her Ph.D. from Michigan State University in 1998, with a major in psychology and a minor in statistics and research design. She has worked with teenagers and families as a therapist, psychologist, clinical director and consultant in residential programs. She is the owner of Canyon Research and Consulting, a company that provides program development, outcome research, and clinical training for mental health programs and providers.

Jamie Burke, M.Ed., ATC, CSCS is a doctoral student in Outdoor Education at the University of New Hampshire. She has extensive experience working with outdoor programming, program evaluation, and statistical analysis.

Kevin A. Curtin is an Assistant Professor of Counseling at Alfred University and the former Clinical Director of The Frost School, a non-public, special education day school in Rockville, MD that serves students with emotional disturbance.

Mat D. Duerden is the Project Coordinator of the Youth Development Initiative (www.ydi.tamu.edu) at Texas A&M University. He received a Ph.D. in Recreation, Park, and Tourism Sciences from Texas A&M University and a MS in Youth and Family Recreation from Brigham Young University. His research focuses on youth development with specific interests in program evaluations, outdoor recreation, and youth/adult relationships.

Dane Ganes, M.A., is the Quality Assurances Director for the Marimed Foundation, whose responsibilities include maintaining the follow-up system used to track youth progress once they leave Kailana. He is a sociologist with a focus on social statistics.

Michael A. Gass, PhD, is a Professor of Outdoor Education at the University of New Hampshire. He is one of the co-founders of the Browne Center for Innovative Learning and is the Editor of the Journal of Therapeutic Schools and Programs.

H. L. Gillis, Ph.D, is chair of the Department of Psychological Science at Georgia College & State University in Milledgeville Georgia. He is also a Licensed Psychologist (#1335 GA) and has researched, evaluated, and practiced in the field of adventure therapy within residential treatment settings since the late 1970s. He can be reached at lee.gillis@gcsu.edu and at leegillis.com/AT.

David Mayeda, PhD, is the Juvenile Justice Research Analyst for the State of Hawai'i's, Department of the Attorney General, Crime Prevention & Justice Assistance Division.

Christine Lynn Norton, PhD, LCSW, Assistant Professor of Social Work at Texas State University-San Marcos, received her PhD in Social Work from Loyola University Chicago. She has a Master of Arts in Social Service Administration from the University of Chicago and a Master of Science in Experiential Education from Minnesota State University-Mankato. Dr. Norton has over 15 years experience working with adolescents in a variety of practice settings including therapeutic wilderness programs, juvenile justice, youth and family counseling, schools, and youth mentoring and educational empowerment programs.

Keith C. Russell, Ph.D., is an Associate Professor in Recreation at Western Washington University, Bellingham, WA, USA. He is also the Director of the Outdoor Behavioral Healthcare Research Cooperative (OBHRC). His research emphasis includes program evaluation, the study of human-nature relationships, the therapeutic benefits of natural environments, and international protected area management. He teaches courses in statistics, research methods, adventure education and therapy, and human relations. He has been a wilderness educator for more than twenty years in the US, Mexico, Costa Rica, and New Zealand.

John Santa, Ph.D., is a co-owner/CEO of Montana Academy. He is the Past President of the National Association of Therapeutic Schools and Programs (NATSAP) and served as a Founding member of their Board of Directors. Dr. Santa received a B.A. in psychology from Whitman College, followed by a masters and PhD in psychology from Purdue University. He has undertaken postdoctoral studies at Stanford University, the University of Montana, and the University of California San Diego Medical Center. Dr. Santa was a tenured faculty member in the department of psychology at Rutgers University and has published numerous articles in areas of psychology and education. He is also a licensed clinical psychologist.

Michael C. Young, M.Ed., has worked in the field of experiential education and counseling for over 15 years. Currently he works as an Extension Educator in youth Development for UNH Cooperative Extension. As a researcher and PhD candidate at UNH, Mike has focused on educational program evaluation and improvement by helping to develop the web-based NATSAP practice research network; facilitating and analyzing the use of Appreciative Inquiry; and convening the international 2007 Adventure Therapy Best Practices Conference.

Mark A. Widmer is a Professor of Therapeutic Recreation at Brigham Young University. He teaches assessment and theory based programming, research and evaluation, and mountain biking. His research focuses on examining the effectiveness of using theory based challenge and adventure programs to promote specific therapeutic outcomes.

Peter A. Witt is Professor and holder of the Bradberry Recreation and Youth Development Chair at Texas A&M University. His academic interests include evaluation of after-school programs, youth development, and impact of camp experiences. He has been at A&M since 1993. He is a former department head at Texas A&M and Graduate Dean and Associate Vice President for Research at the University of North Texas. Dr. Witt received his PhD from the University of Illinois.